3. Narrative: ORIOLE began 1999 with its third Commanding Officer LCDR Michael A. Strano, who took the helm in a change of command ceremony held on 4 December 1998. In January 1999, the ship entered the Basic Phase of Training (TSTA I/II) in the Corpus Christi Operations Area. From 11-17 February 1999, ORIOLE was visit ship in Mobile, Alabama for Mardi Gras. From 22 April to 9 May, the ship operated out of Panama City, Florida conducting TSTA IV Mine Warfare Training, this training included the deep water MP 1 cutter neutralizations of two moored mine shapes. ORIOLE sailed up the Mississippi River on the way to New Orleans to be visit ship for the Armed Forces Week celebrations lasting from 12 to 16 May. ORIOLE arrived home on 20 May 1999. The following week, the ship was in the Corpus Christi Operations Area conducting TSTA IV Mine Warfare Training. On 28 May, ORIOLE was struck by lightning approximately 10 miles off the coast of Aransas Pass, Texas. After one month of repairs, ORIOLE completed her Final Evaluation Period and Navigation Certification on 28 June 1999. On 1 July 1999, ORIOLE became the first MHC to enter the Electromagnetic Roll and Calibration Facility in Ingleside for a degaussing check ranging. During July and August, the ship conducted training in the Corpus Christi Operations Area and completed a Combat Systems Readiness Review, Medical Readiness Certification, and comprehensive Diesel Engine Inspection on four of her five engines. September 1999 found ORIOLE participating in GOMEX 99-2 and the Partnership for Peace Cooperative TELOS exercise. During this exercise, she demonstrated a complete detect to engage sequence including the neutralization of a moored mine with MP 1 cutters. On 29 September, ORIOLE departed for Key West, Florida and an East Coast cruise. Enroute, the ship sustained a casualty to her NR 1 Main Propulsion Diesel Engine. After arriving in Key West, her engineers completed repairs replacing
